

Class of 2014

Description of the 2014 class:
Coming from all corners of the Nkomazi region, with a wide variety of struggles and successes, every student shares a deep desire to forge a better life. Many students are orphans. Most come from families that struggle to provide life’s basic necessities. Despite these challenges, Imagine Scholars compete academically with the top students in the country. They are natural hard-workers whose underutilized talents have a natural home at the Imagine Academy. All they need to realize their potential is the right support and encouragement.
